ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR SHERIFF.

We are authorized to announce E. P. Clarke as a candidate for Sheriff of Bourbon County, with Albert S. Thompson and Wm. F. Talbot as deputies, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce Harvey Hibler as a candidate for Sheriff of Bourbon County, with Brutus J. Clay, Jr., and James Burke as deputies, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Victory Certain.

It does not matter to the Democrats whom the Republicans put up as their standard-bearer in Kentucky this year, we are going united to the polls and win a victory. Let it be either Belknap, Willson, Pratt, Eurnam or Yerkes, it is the same old Republican party, with the same odium attached, in Kentucky. They cannot dodge the campaign issues to be raised.

The campaign committee selected is of good material and a strong body of men, and they have the assistance of the advisory committee, composed of twenty-four of the leading Democrats of the State. In addition to this every county and precinct in the State will have its campaign committee, composed in each instance of the best Democratic workers, and with the messenger of peace hanging over the Democratic hosts, what chance has the Republicans to win? Victory in November is assured.

FOR RENT.—Cottage of four rooms, on Winchester Street. Apply at News office.

THE VERY BEST.—For the oldest and best whiskies, wines, beer and cigars, go to Windsor Hotel Bar. They handle nothing but the very best that can be bought.

A Graceful Retreat.

The old Democratic Committee known as the Vreeland-Neal Committee in Louisville, was indorsed, and allowed to remain in power and the new Lexington committee known as the Hedger-Ballock was declared the legal committee, by the State Central Committee, Monday. Chairman Allie Young was turned down on both propositions, but made a graceful retreat, and is apparently safe back in the band wagon once more.

In the Boyle-Mercer circuit W. C. Bell and Charles R. Hardin were given the nominations for Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney, and in the Lyon-Calloway circuit Judge Thomas P. Cook was declared the nominee.

HAY AND RYE WANTED.—Highest market price paid for hay and rye.
G. W. STUART.

NEW PLACE.—Mr. Geo. T. Lyons is ready to wait on his customers in his new building, on Main near 10th. He now has one of the neatest saloons in the city.

Great Gathering.

Not in years has there been such a gathering of party leaders as was in attendance at the meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee, in Frankfort, on Monday last. There were at least two hundred, and they were the class of Democrats that generally assemble before the convention of a General Assembly session at which a United States Senator is to be elected. It was a very significant gathering and we are assured that the Democrats will enter the campaign harmoniously and will present a united front to the Republicans.

CAUTION.—Beer put up in dark colored bottles is not always Wiedemann's. See that it has the Crown tin stopper branded "Wiedemann."

Breathitt Circuit Court.

The special term of Circuit Court will convene in Jackson Monday morning to investigate the burning of Ewen's home and the attempt to bribe Ewen to prevent his testifying in the Jett-White cases.

Capt. Ewen believes that, if Judge Redwine is determined and the jury is honestly drawn, indictments will be returned at this term of the court and the men responsible for intimidation, attempt d bribery, arson and assassination will be punished. His belief is shared by the people of the State. The July term of the court was not recommended for the purpose of adding another to the long list of farcical pretenses at justice in Breathitt county. Judge Redwine has insisted on retaining his place on the bench. It remains with him whether he will free his reputation of the suspicion under which it rests in the minds of many. One thing is certain, it is not the time or the occasion for him or any other sworn officer of the law in Breathitt to adopt half-way measures in doing his duty.

Notice.

I closed my fresh meat department on July 15th, for the summer, and will not handle any more fresh meat until October 1st. I will still continue to keep on hand choice cured meats and sliced ham and a full line of staple and fancy groceries. Also a choice lot of home-made preserves and jams, blackberry jam in the bulk at less than you can buy factory jam.

Respectfully,

J. R. ADAIR.

IS STILL STURDY.—To prove that he is still sturdy, though at the age of retirement, Gen. Nelson A. Miles Wednesday rode ninety miles on horseback. He covered the distance, from Fort Sill, I. T., to Fort Reno, Okla., in nine hours and ten minutes, though the actual time in the saddle was eight hours.

WHEAT WANTED.—We are in the market for wheat at the highest price. Plenty of sacks.
(23jylm) R. B. HUTCHCRAFT.

BARGAINS.—The largest line and most beautiful patterns of Wall Paper in the State can be found at J. T. Hinton's. This stock will be offered at rare bargains if you buy now. It

FOR RENT.—Cottage of four rooms on Pleasant Street. Apply to
CHAS. E. BUTLER

A NEW SYSTEM.—A Louisville firm has adopted a new system by which whisky is made from ten to twenty years old in less than twenty hours' time. This is getting things down pretty fine.

THE FAIR!

TEN YEARS

Having passed since the portals of The Fair Store were first swung open to the public, ten years that were but a succession of trade triumphs, we can with all propriety say that the store has fulfilled the mission it was created for, and that the public has appreciated its efforts. The career of the store, universally considered a very remarkable one, warrants a few words concerning the principles which made such success possible. We state them, therefore.

Why did The Fair Store succeed so quickly in building up the largest retail business in the city?

BECAUSE

We do not misrepresent in the store and do not permit our employees to do so either.

BECAUSE

We have a smaller expense ratio than any other store that we know of and can, therefore, afford to sell cheaper.

BECAUSE

We are attending to our own business, "With malice towards none, with charity for all," we look straight ahead and attend to our own affairs. We are not jealous of competing stores; we do not hope for nor do we predict the failure of others; we have no desire to plant the ascending star of our success in place of the descending star of another store but are happy to live and let live.

BECAUSE

We sell at one price only. We give no discounts, no rebates, no private arrangements of any sort, to anyone. A child can buy here as safely as an expert.

BECAUSE

We refund money whenever you do not like your purchase you can get your money back as quick as a wink at this store.

BECAUSE

We buy and sell for Cash Only. We are wedded to no factory or concern of any kind, we buy for cash and where we can buy to the best advantage.

BECAUSE

We permit no one to undersell us, and come what may, we'll fulfill this promise.

SOMETIME

Soon, Electric Cars will be running through Lexington.

HOME FIRST;

The World Afterwards. A good motto this, for either individuals or communities, and readily finds its echo in the voice of every merchant in this city. Every dollar spent in your home stores, adds to the development of home industries. It helps the growth of the individual, for we are all more or less dependent upon each other.

Watch The Store Grow.

Our new 5 and 10 cent store on the side will open August 1st.
